

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is a clear attempt to sway public support away from John Kerry. If this program is aired, there should be a similar program aired against President Bush. This action is detrimental to the media in general. For Sinclair to air a program like this is showing definite support and bias for one candidate. It is unfair and unlawful.

Thank you.
